MT. PLEASANT IS MAKING A FIGHT*Want to Know Just What the Pennsylvania Intends Doing.*ADAMS EXPRESS TO LEAVE*Company Announces It Will Discontinue Its Office There November 1.
Will Interview Officials and Then Go to Washington, If Necessary.

Special to The Courier.
MT. PLEASANT, Oct. 23.—The Pleasant citizens are up in arms and at a mass meeting in the opera house this morning appointed a committee to fight the case before the officials of the Pennsylvania railroad, or the Interstate Commerce Commission, if necessary. Mt. Pleasant wants to know just what the Pennsylvania railroad intends to do, as far as that town is concerned. There has been talk of extending the line from Hedon as far as Mt. Pleasant, giving the Southwest a loop between Young-wood and Scottsdale. Officials have indicated that this plan is being regarded favorably, but nothing definite has been said in regard to it.

The town was at first quick action as a result of Saturday's announcement, which came without warning, that the Adams Express Company would discontinue its office here after November 1. This will make Tarr the nearest office of the company. Mt.
Pleasant does not want to be entirely wiped off the railroad map.

The committee appointed this morning is composed of Burgess A.
T. Collins, Postmaster H. J. Jordan and Secretary M. A. King of the board of trade. The committee men will first present the matter to General Superintendent R. L. O'Donnell of the Pennsylvania railroad's Pittsburgh division. The members of the committee have an appointment with Superintendent O'Donnell at Pittsburgh tomorrow. They will, it is possible, get O'Donnell's definite and final answer from Mr. O'Donnell regarding the intention of the railroad company's plans for improved service at Mt. Pleasant. If Mr. O'Donnell is not in position to answer the questions of the committee the committee will go to Philadelphia for a conference with General Manager S. C. Long.

If the committee is not able to get satisfaction in Philadelphia, it was the sense of the meeting held this morning that an appeal should be made to the Interstate Commerce Commission.
An effort will be made to compel the railroad company to give Mt. Pleasant the service it is entitled to. However, every effort will be exhausted to deal with the railroad officials in a friendly manner before recourse is taken to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Former Suitor Murder Suspect

United Press Telegram.
BOSTON, Oct. 23.—Close personal friends of Miss G. Edmunds said today that Rev. Richeson was responsible for a former suitor's slanders and for Miss Edmunds' slanders and the suitor and not Richeson killed the girl. It is said Miss Edmunds will testify that Richeson was with her all day Saturday. Edmunds will produce in court a bottle of cyanide of potassium alleged to have been found in Richeson's room. Richeson slept well last night and awakened early today. He talked freely with the jurists but would not discuss the murder.
It is not denied that private detectives employed by the defense searched Richeson's room before the police arrived and took away a suit case filled with Richeson's belongings. It is declared that Richeson did want to kill a dog but didn't.

Youthful Player Hurt In Scrimmage

Michael Palma of Scottsdale, aged 22 years, who was slightly injured while playing football at South Connecticut Saturday, was discharged from the Cottage State hospital yesterday and returned to his home. He was accidentally kicked in the abdomen by one of the players. He was stunned for a short time.

(Special.)—Miss Abbey Cook, 25, beautiful of Logan, W. Va., is in jail here today charged with shooting Dr.
J. P. McDonald, aged 49, Saturday night.

Purity Congress Meets at Columbus

Special to The Courier.
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23.—The sixth International purity congress, under the auspices of the American Purity Federation, was informally opened here today with the arrival of numerous delegates and the meeting of committees preliminary to the beginning of the general sessions. The congress will continue in session through the greater part of the week. Every phase of moral and social questions will be presented and discussed, including the white slave traffic, law enforcement, needed legislation, sex hygiene problems, suppression of vice, and rescue homes and methods.
Social reformers from many parts of the United States and Canada are present as delegates, most of them with papers upon various subjects, which they will read during the sessions. Among these are Anthony Comstock of New York, Arthur B.
Farwell of Chicago, Rev. Wilbur F.
Crafts of Washington, D. C., Harry E.
Moore of Seattle, Rev. Dr. Gordon of Whitings, Mrs. Kate Walker Barrett of Washington, D. C., Bishop John W.
Hamilton of Boston, Rev. T. Albert Moore of Toronto, Rev. Madison G.
Peters of Brooklyn, George L. School of Louisville, Mrs. Elizabeth H.
Grannia of New York, Dr. Emma A.
Drake of Denver, and Mrs. Lulu Shepard of Salt Lake City.

Rebels Gaining;
China Tottering

United Press Telegram.
PEKING, Oct. 23.—With four of the 18 provinces almost wholly under rebel control and the others tottering, China may fairly be said to be in the throes of a civil war today rather than a localized uprising. The capture of Chang-sha and Nan-chang, capitals of the provinces of Hunan and Kiangsi, was confirmed today.
Besides the provinces of Hunan and Kiangsi, those of two other provinces are wholeheartedly enlisted in the rebel movement and those of Kiangsu and Ngan-tswai are partly rebellious.

In the Yangtze valley the only important cities remaining in the government's hands are Shanghai and Nanking. Stears are being taken to defend Shanghai. The Manchurian dynasty's overthrow is fully expected.
Business is paralyzed. American and European refugees are swarming into Shanghai.

Consul General Wilder reports that he is doing all in his power to secure additional war vessels to protect his countrymen's lives and property.
An unconfirmed report says that the Prince Regent is dead and the Emperor has fled from Peking. How informed circles disbelieve this report.

The State's Case Against Richeson

United Press Telegram.
BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 23.—Believing that the State already has woven a complete net of evidence against Rev. Richeson, Assistant District Attorney Lazzelle will place Richeson on trial early in January.
"We will present the case to the November Grand Jury. Unless something unforeseen happens Richeson will go on trial in January," he said this morning.

While the prosecution plans to rush the accused divine to trial the entire wealth of the Edmunds family is being freely offered in his defense and today some of the most skilled private detectives are scouring Boston's "white way" for any who might have seen Avis Linnel with the "other suitor." Every restaurant in the Boston trolley district is being vigilantly watched.

Miners Entombed In Illinois Mine

United Press Telegram.
HARRISBURG, Ill., Oct. 23.—In a terrible explosion thought to have been of a great quantity of powder at Ogare mine No. 9 today, 14 men were entombed and all are thought to be dead.
The explosion occurred at the main entrance of the shaft. None of the entombed men has been reached.

Already six rescuers have been brought to the surface overcome by gas. The explosion was of such force that men working in mines Nos. 3 and 4 felt the shock distinctly. The three mines are connected, No. 9 being the largest.

Mrs. Hall Will Entertain.
Mrs. C. P. Hall will entertain the women of the Christian Church at a 10 cent tea Friday afternoon at her home on Vine street.

TWELVE CASES OF TYPHOID FEVER*Pennsville This Fall Is Having More Cases
Than Usual.*DEATH OF MRS. FRANK RICHEY*Young Woman Had Been Ill Only a Week—Leaves Husband and Ten Months' Old Son—Funeral Will Be Held on Tuesday.

Pennsville has over a dozen cases of typhoid fever. A number of the cases are serious. One death has occurred. Yesterday after only a week's illness Mrs. Winifred Richey, wife of Frank Richey, died at her home in Pennsville. She was in her 24th year. Mrs. Richey was ill only seven days. The funeral will be held from the home of her father-in-law, John Richey, at Pennsville on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The services will be conducted at the home by Rev.
Hayes, the pastor of the United Brethren church of Pennsville. The interment will be at Scottsdale. Mrs.
Richey was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell of Pennsville and her death is deeply mourned by a large circle of friends at Pennsville and vicinity. Besides her husband she leaves a son, Howell, ten months old.
It is thought that the spread of typhoid at Pennsville and vicinity is due to bad water. There are many wells and springs in that vicinity that get the surface drainage water where typhoid germs are liable to be lurking.

While no deaths have been reported in the last few days from typhoid fever in the mountain district there are perhaps a score of cases in Springfield and Salford.
Two new cases of typhoid fever and one of diphtheria were reported in the city this morning by Health Officer Alton Hyatt, and one case of typhoid has developed in Connelville township. The typhoid cases in the borough are Martha Strandrew, No.
258 East Main street, and a case in the Shipley family, on Fayette street.
Martha Dawson, of Second street, West Side, has diphtheria.
Matthew Harrison of Meyer is the township typhoid victim.

Lloyd Cox Home; Had Great Trip

Lloyd Cox is home from his trip to the World's Series games with the Pittsburgh Post party. Lloyd says the party came home of its own volition, that the Post would have continued the trip until the games are over, but it was decided to call it off.
In Philadelphia there was nothing but rain and with no signs of clear weather in sight the Post fans decided home looked better to them than either Philadelphia or New York.
Three games of the series were witnessed, together with numerous side trips, so those who were the guests of the Post in the east were more than pleased with their trip and expressed no regret that the remaining games were wiped off the slate, as far as they were concerned.

Draw Plans for New Dye Works

The Connelville Construction Company has been engaged to draw up plans for the new dyeing and dye works of the Connelville Steam Laundry Company, which is to be located on Baldwin avenue. Manager A. M. Hallow is busy today drawing up the preliminary sketches. The building will be a two story, steel, concrete and brick structure, 40 by 60 feet in size.
The front will be of buff brick, with plenty of plate glass windows. The side and rear walls will be of rough brick.

Father Believes In Son's Innocence

United Press Telegram.
AMHERST, N. Y., Oct. 23.—"I know my son is innocent, and I shall defend him in every way within my power, but if he should be proved guilty, which is impossible, I would rather be dead than face the world as his father."
This was the statement of Col. T. U.
Richeson, father of Rev. Richeson.
The elder Richeson lives near here on his farm.
"When the time comes I will come to Boston and be by my son's side. His record is clean."

John R. Walsh Dies In Chicago

United Press Special.
CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—John R. Walsh, the Chicago banker and railroad builder, who was paralyzed from a heart attack while on a tour of the city, died at his home this morning of heart failure. Walsh was 74 years old and came to Chicago in the early days.
The Chicago National Bank failed

December 16, 1905, and Walsh was indented the following January. After many appeals the United States Supreme Court, July 17, 1910, refused another delay and two days later he began a five year sentence at Leavenworth.
Many efforts were made to secure pardon for the aged man, finally he was released.

Into Discard Go
The Orange Jerseys

The brilliant orange jerseys worn last year by the Connelville basketball team will go into the discard this season and instead the Cokers will wear a color scheme of maroon and white. The orange jerseys were never popular with the players, who claimed they lost their brilliancy after having been worn a few times. Some of the gentlemen of Celtic extraction were unable to endure over the color, either. The new uniforms will be ordered as soon as the measurements can be secured.

That the basketball hall will be practically complete by next Saturday is the confident belief of Manager M. A. Coffey. A. M. Hallow of the Connellsville Construction Company says it will take something entirely unlooked for to delay their end of the work beyond November 1. The iron columns have been erected and roof struts are going in place today.
All the material is on hand ready to be placed. It is expected the case will be ready by the time the players report a week from tomorrow.

Lecture Course Seats Go Fast

The seat sale for the Y. M. C. A. lecture course opened this morning at the Soloman with a rush that resembled a football scrimmage. The demand for seats for the opening of the sale indicated the course will be well attended this season. An exceptionally strong program, somewhat different from that of previous seasons, is being offered.
The first lecture will take place on November 2 when Francis J. Honey, the San Francisco graft prosecutor, will be the attraction.

Same Old Tale—
"No Game Today"

United Press Telegram.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—Today's game in the world's series was again called off this morning and prospects for tomorrow are not brilliant. Every effort is being made to get the field in playing shape but with almost a week of continuous rain has made Shibe park eligible to be transformed into a waterpark.
Interest in the series has fallen off in such a manner that fans in general do not seem to care whether it is finished or not.

A JOINT AGENCY AT INDIAN CREEK*B. & O. Will Join With the Indian Creek Valley Railroad.*THE MAN WHO IS SLATED*Fred Algure, It Is Reported, Will Be the New Agent at That Point—He is at Present Agent for the Indian Creek Valley Road.

A new agency will be established in the near future on the Connelville division of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, although just when the appointment will be announced cannot be learned at this time. The new agency will in all probability be a joint one, the successful appointee serving under both the Baltimore & Ohio and the Indian Creek Valley roads.
Although nothing definite can be learned it is expected that Fred Algure will receive the appointment.
He is at present agent for the Indian Creek Valley railroad at Indian Creek and has had considerable experience.
Before assuming his present appointment he was employed by the Baltimore & Ohio.

The agency for the Indian Creek Valley railroad at Indian Creek has been the stepping stone for several young men to higher positions. Both Sandy Mason and Mark Lysinger, who formerly held the position, returned to the Baltimore & Ohio at advanced salaries. Algure was recruited from the B. & O. and is slated for the joint agency when it is finally established, unless something unforeseen occurs to prevent. Algure has discharged the rather complicated duties at Indian Creek with great credit and it is stated that officials of that road will heartily endorse his name for the joint agency.

Mary Rode to Lockup in Bus

A wheelbarrow and the city bus were both required to break up a gathering in Chestnut Hill cemetery yesterday morning when Mrs. Mary Ritchey was found by Chief Hazel and Officer Hull entertaining a trio of male friends. Mrs. Ritchey objected to making the trip to the lockup.
She would not walk, rolled off the wheelbarrow so many times that vehicular progress of that nature was early abandoned, and finally had to be taken to the lockup in the bus.

In police court this morning she was fined $10 with the 72 hour alternative. She denied the charges against her and she was looking for her husband, and that the three men followed her to the cemetery, where she expected to locate her spouse.

Each of the three men was given 72 hours for disorderly conduct.
Two drunks faced Burgess Evans in police court yesterday morning. They were Martin Blubaugh and Joe Wex.
Each took 48 hours.

Frost Tonight Is Predicted

With rain and a cold raw wind, yesterday was unpleasant and put an end to a number of pilgrimages that had been planned for the day. Waiting in the country was not crowded because of the muddy conditions of the roads and it was about as bad overhead as underneath. There was a sudden change in the temperature.
Saturday had been warm as summer but yesterday the temperature dropped and this morning went even lower.
The mercury this morning was at 47 degrees, 12 points lower than yesterday morning. Last evening it was 54.
Frost is predicted tonight by the weather bureau, providing the skies remain clear as they were this morning. It will probably be the first heavy frost of the season, if it finally develops.

Chased a Cow.

Officer P. M. Hill went to the South Side this morning and arrested a vagrant cow. He had trouble bringing it in town and has come to the conclusion that it is foolish for one officer to go out on a cow case. The lady bovines have such a perverse disposition they will never go in the right direction, Hill says.

Baby Born on Train.
HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., Oct. 23.— (Special.)—A boy was born to Mrs.
Jennie Rosinsky aboard the Huntingdon express on the Pennsylvania last night. As there was no physician on board, the train backed to Carlisle where there is a hospital. The train was two hours late.

Thomas G. Capel Called By Death

Thomas G. Capel, aged 22 years, four months and 15 days, a former well known barber of town, died yesterday at the home of his parents, Thomas and Mary E. Rowan Capel, No. 609 West Gibson avenue. Capel had been confined to his bed for nearly two months. Heart trouble was the cause of his death. Funeral from his parents' residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. B. Frank White and Rev. C. P. Allison will officiate. The Moose Lodge of Brown-sville will have charge. Interment in Hill Grove cemetery.
"Deceased" was born in Iowa and came to Connelville about three years ago. He learned the barber trade with Porter Koller and later went to West Brownsville where he opened up a barber shop which he successfully ran up until his late illness. He was a member of the Christian Church, the Improved Order of Red Men, the Junior Order United Mechanics and the Moose of Brown-sville. Deceased was widely and famously known in Connelville and his death is keenly felt by his many friends. He is survived by his widow, one child, his parents and two sisters, Miss Margaret Capel at home, and Mrs. Pearl Kelley of Donora.

Politics and Policies Topic For Farmers

"Politics and Policies" were discus-ed at the regular monthly meeting of the Union Farmers' Club held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.
S. Dunn, near Vanderbilt. The meeting was one of interest. W. B. Sweningen spoke on "Will a man be a better citizen and farmer if well informed on political questions of the day?"
The subject was discussed in general and proved to be one of great interest to the members of the club. At noon Mrs. Dunn served a nicely arranged dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Scott Dunn of the West Side were guests of the club.
The next meeting will be held Saturday, November 18, at the home of Mrs. D. W. Clement. "Speculation" is the subject for discussion.

John Lihay's Body Is Here For Burial

The body of the late John Lihay arrived here this morning from Philadelphia and was removed to Funeral Director J. L. Stader's rooms on West Main street. The interment will be made in the Slavish cemetery.
Lihay's body was shipped to the Anatomical Board at Philadelphia Saturday a week ago because his widow did not have sufficient funds to pay for his burial. His friends later raised enough money to have the body brought back to Connelville for interment.

Youngtown Has Shooting Mystery

United Press Telegram.
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 23.— Robert R. McCready, 19, of Beaver falls, Pa., was fatally wounded in the heart and Lulu Grinnell, 25, of Sharon, was wounded in the shoulder in the Hotel Salow early today. Both declare they did not fire the shots.
McCready's trousers and a revolver were found in an alley in the rear of the hotel. The police believe they were thrown through the window of McCready's room. Another woman is thought to be involved.

Vecchio Arrested In Pittsburgh Today

Special to The Courier.
UNIONTOWN, Oct. 23.—Constable Dick Wood went to Pittsburgh this morning where he arrested Nick Vecchio on charges of assault and battery growing out of a fight at Continental No. 2 some weeks ago.
Information was brought before Squire John Boyle of Uniontown, who will give Vecchio a hearing.

Aeroplane Tested in War.
TRIPOLI, Oct. 23.—(Special.)— Aviators Piazza and Moiza of the Italian army ascended today to reconnoitre the Turkish positions. It is the first appearance of the aeroplane in war. An unconfirmed report says Arabs massacred 100 Christians at Benharza before the Italians bombarded the town.

Fair Weather.
Generally fair tonight or Tuesday, frost, tonight if weather clears, is noon weather bulletin.

NEW RAILROAD TO WEST VIRGINIA*Connecting That State With National Capital is Planned.*ELECTRIC LINE AT START*Senator Davis and Elkins Estate Said to Be Interested in the Project to Extend the Blument Branch of the Southern.

Special to The Courier.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—Unless present plans miscarry Washington will be connected with West Virginia by a new line of railroad before the first of next summer. At the outset it probably will be an electric line, but if the business should warrant it, the charter of the road will permit of its being operated as a steam line.

Back of the plans are former Senator Henry Cassaway Davis, the estate of the late Stephen B. Elkins, and other West Virginia interests and the president of the company is W. H.
Hendley, for many years confidential man to Senator Davis. Whether the building of the line from here into West Virginia is the first step toward giving an eastern outlet to the Coal and Coke railroad, owned largely by Senator Davis and the Elkins estate, or whether it is merely an independent railroad move with a view to commending local business between Washington and the eastern portion of West Virginia, is not known at the present time. At the outset it probably will be operated merely as a local road, though eventually it may become an outlet for the Coal and Coke or other West Virginia railroads trying to get to the east.

The Washington and Old Dominion Railway Company is the one which is preparing to tap the West Virginia field from Washington. Apparently it is to absorb the Great Falls and Old Dominion line, owned largely by the same parties and running west from Washington through Virginia, to a point on the Potomac river some 18 miles from the capital. At any rate its entrance into Washington is to be over the tracks of the Great Falls and Old Dominion road. This line starts from the western end of Washington, known as Georgetown, crosses the Potomac river into Alexandria county, Virginia, and then proceeds westward to the Great Falls of the Potomac.
From Alexandria, Virginia, some six miles from Washington, the Southern railway has a branch line running westward to Blument, Loudoun county, Virginia. The Washington and Old Dominion Railway Company has recorded a fifty year lease of this Blue-mont branch of the Southern railway.
The plan now is to connect the Great Falls and Old Dominion with the Bluemont branch at a point near Georgetown, and then to extend the Bluemont branch some fifteen miles from Blument to Charles Town, West Virginia, thus giving a through line from Charles Town to Washington.
Proceedings for the condemnation of the land needed for right of way for the connection between the Bluemont line and the Great Falls are Old Dominion line have already been instituted in the courts of Alexandria county, Va., and the distance between the two lines already built is short so that the connecting link at this end of the new line can be made speedily. It is announced here that it is the intention, to complete the extension to Charles Town before next spring.

It is also part of the plan to extend the Bluemont line from Blument to another direction, to Winchester, Virginia, giving that city as well as Charles Town access to the national capital by trolley line.

Boy Scouts Take Ten Mile Hike

The Boy Scouts took a 10 mile hike to Tato's Hollow and return Saturday. They had a great time, gathered chestnuts and enjoyed themselves generally under the direction of Scoutmaster C. J. Kilbourne. They built fires and performed other feats that are expected to initiate them into a knowledge of woodcraft.

Three youngsters tied the knots and took out as tenderfeet. They were Russell Engleka, Clark Lessig and Harry Millard.
Daniel Work Injured.
Daniel Work, an aged and widely known resident of Dunbar township, met with an accident last Thursday evening which resulted in a fracture of the right arm above the wrist. Mr.
Work was walking on a slippery board when his cane slipped and threw him to the ground. Mr. Work resides on a farm near Leisenring No. 1.

McLalan Fights For His Pet Dog

CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 23.—Robert Larson, employed by the city to pick up unlicensed dogs, received a lot of additional notoriety on Virginia avenue Saturday morning. Larson was knocked down and hammered unmercifully by Henry T. McLalan, an engineer on the Connellsville division of the B. & O.

It was shortly after 8 o'clock when the dog catcher appeared on the avenue and tried to catch a rather fine looking bull terrier in front of McLalan's house. McLalan's little girl, Maude, whose pet the dog was, ran up to her father's room and waked him from sleep to tell him that a man was trying to steal the dog. McLalan, who had been in from work only a few hours, got up and went out on Virginia avenue where he saw the dog catcher trying to get the dog. In a little while there was a war of words between the owner of the dog and the dog catcher. McLalan accused Larson of having stolen the dog on two former occasions and demanded that he let the canine alone. McLalan and other persons who were on the street at the time, state that Larson cursed McLalan. The trouble started about the corner of Laid and Virginia avenues and continued up street to the front of J. D. Larson's store.

The dog catcher tried to get into the store but the proprietor didn't want him and kept him out. In the rumous march of the produce on display at Larson's store was knocked better skelter and pumpkins, apples, pears and other fruit were looted all over the street. Finally Larson said he had "enough" and McLalan quit and loaded a car for the police station where he told what happened and wanted to submit his case. He was required to deposit $50 for his appearance for trial before Police Justice Humbert, in the afternoon. After a hearing of the case the magistrate imposed a fine of $25 on the part of the city, which amount McLalan paid. He was later arrested on a State warrant and gave bonds in the sum of $100 for his appearance at a trial for assault and battery.

Children's Party Down at Dawson

A social event among many of the children of Dawson was a birthday party given Saturday evening by Mrs. James S. Laughrey at her home at Dawson in honor of the tenth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Grace Lenore. The affair was in the form of a masquerade party and was a complete surprise to little Miss Grace Lenore. Thirty of her small friends were present. The hours were from 7 until 10 o'clock. The affair was handsomely arranged and all the appointments were suggestive of Halloween. Many different characters were represented by the children and their costumes were very quaint. They presented a very charming picture. The decorations were very attractive, pumpkins, corn fodder, fall leaves and jack-o'-lanterns being used in all the rooms on the first floor. At 8:40 o'clock the children unmasked to partake of a delicious Halloween luncheon. In the center of the table was a low mound of dahlias and narcissus while at one end of the table was a large birthday cake with ten lighted candles significant of the age of the little hostess. The favors were small pumpkins and post cards. The amusements of the evening were diving for apples, hunting chestnuts and other Halloween games. A card hunt was greatly enjoyed by the little guests. The affair was the largest and most enjoyable children's party held at Dawson for some time. Mary Porter, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Porter of the West Side was an out of town guest.

Men of Wealth. Men who have attained distinction in business, began life in humble circumstances. The study of their careers reveals the story of a poor boy who starts with meagre advantages. He is quick to appreciate values. He understands the law of wealth. He saves money. The business world eagerly welcomes men who have learned to save. Pretty Wedding at Catholic Church

A very pretty church wedding was that of Miss Anna Madeline McNulty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony McNulty of Trotter, and Frank Herron of Uniontown, which took place this morning at 7 o'clock in the Immaculate Conception church. Nuptial High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father J. T. Burns. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Mayme McNulty, wore a white tulle gown tailored suit and a white tailored hat. Her maid of honor wore a blue tailored suit and a tan hat. The bridegroom had as his best man, Frank Lane of Uniontown.

As the bridal party entered the church the organ's wedding march was rendered by Kierle's orchestra. At the offertory Miss Katherine Tormay sang Ave Maria. Mass was sung by Miss Tormay, Miss Margaret Desnoe and Miss Winnie Harbigan. As the bridal party left the church Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered by the orchestra.

The ceremony was witnessed by many friends of the young couple. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride where a well appointed wedding breakfast was served. Covers were laid only for the members of the two families. A color scheme of pink and white was daintily carried out in all the appointments. Bouquets of cosmos were used as floral decorations. The bride is a very attractive and popular young lady and for several years taught in the Dunbar township schools.

The bridegroom is a well known young business man of Uniontown and is a son of Mrs. Theresa Herron of Uniontown. The only out of town guests at the breakfast were Mrs. Theresa Herron and Frank Lane, both of Uniontown. Mr. and Mrs. Herron left this morning for a short western trip. They will reside in Uniontown.

CHILD WOULD NOT EAT.

Constant Cough Weakened Him. A healthy child ought to be "hungry as a bear" at meal time. Poor appetite means falling health.

The best thing you can do for a child that won't eat is to give potent doses of Vinol. This is a wonderful food in drinking glass bottles and it is so pleasant that children take it eagerly.

Mrs. E. Stoner of Dixon, Borough, N. Y., says "My little son, three years old, had bronchitis for a year. The cough disturbed his rest and he lost his appetite."

"I gave him Vinol for a while and it stopped his coughing and brought back his appetite. His health has improved wonderfully. He likes Vinol."

It is the tonic from and strengthening cod liver elements in Vinol (it contains no oil), that make it so strengthening and blood enriching. It makes weak, pale children strong and rosy, and we guarantee it to do exactly what we tell you—it does not cost you a cent more than it is worth.

Graham & Co., Druggists, Connellsville, Pa. Vinol is sold in West Connellsville by Fred H. Harmaning, druggist.

Veteran Tyro on Vacation. John Baker Cooley, dean of the courier's mechanical department, began today his annual vacation of two weeks. Mr. Cooley will spend some of it near home but expects to visit his sisters in Elwood City, Pa., and Pittsburgh before taking up his stick and rule once more.

Want, for rent, for sale, etc., cost only one cent a word.

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 23, 1911.

FAYETTE COUNTY POLITICS.

The Conneltsville News says we pay it a high compliment by saying it is a Democratic organ. We are not unkind of the compliment. We have for so many years been unable to pay such a compliment to any Fayette county daily paper that it is a pleasure to confer it now. The Democratic party of Fayette county has been dead so long that it has not been worthy fighting for. We welcome the Conneltsville News as an organ of the opposition. Politics have been rather monotonous except at the primaries.

Editor John Lester Koffer will probably disagree with this view, but we cannot revise the Democratic situation. It must take care of itself. Chairman Gray must look after it, and doubtless he will. He is forceful and competent. He believes in the value of advertising. He is a business man and a business politician. He leads a forlorn hope gallantly and wisely. He appreciates the value of the Republican press as an advertising medium. He will do well, but the county will go Republican just the same.

Fayette county people are not prepared to commit industrial suicide by aiding or abetting a political party that would do murder to the coke business.

Connellsville will hold its city institute at a date which will permit teachers to enjoy the Christmas holidays after their own fashion. The decision is wise and proper. It is proper because the teachers are entitled to a holiday vacation, and it is wise because holiday institutes are usually holiday frolics for most of the teachers. The Conneltsville News will be held at a time when the attention of the attendants will not be distracted by other things, and its efficiency as an educator will be the greater than institutes which all in holidays are and are adorned with distracting side issues.

Return postage is a great drawback to a literary career.

Sand Patch seems to be under the spell of the hoodoo.

The insurgent movement has spread here to China.

It's easier to make a break than it is to mend it.

President Taft will arrive in Conneltsville just in time to see the Midnight Sons in Hollow's infirmary.

Connellsville has engaged the services of a "Plumber." Conneltsville can't have too many plumbers if they plug for the town.

A who man is more less of a fool than he averages.

The County Solicitor and the County Commissioners seem to have adopted the view of The Courier concerning borough elections in Conneltsville this fall. In the language of the small boy who was asked for the core of the apple, "There ain't going to be none."

All things the master doesn't want comes to him who waits.

President Taft is cutting on his friends and his enemies with charming impartiality, and the smile that won't come off his face everybody.

The Government practically recognizes Pittsburgh as the Coal Center of the country, and it is generally conceded that Conneltsville is the Coke Center of the country. Uniontown papers please copy.

The Steel Corporation will not be dissolved this year or next. Its shareholders need not be alarmed for its future. It is too well built to fall down in a day.

All hands round for Hollow's on!

The Mask and Wig Club of Conneltsville will give a free show on the evening of October 21st.

The 15th of October calls for more than saving newspaper notices.

It looks as if Boston has caught a cold in sheep clothing, but the defendant is entitled to the benefit of the doubt, at least until the evidence is all in.

Even a strong minded man is apt to do exactly what the woman in the case wants him to do.

Russian Justice.

By Isaac of Yukon.

There is no country in which the law is so fully carried out more fully than in Russia. Court officials are so perfectly drilled that all legal machinery works with as much satisfaction as an Oliver's chilled plow. Ever since Ivan the Terrible went around cracking heads for the amusement he got out of it, Russian justice has not been like clockwork. Siberia is Russia's great refuse annex. When the son of a grand duke needs killing, and the royal family desire to have the execution occur away from home, the ducal boy is sent with the chain gang to Siberia. College professors, husky students and strong-willed pastors who offer suggestions for the good of the government are usually sent to the desolate north land.

A Siberian prison pen has a graveyard accompaniment. The two go together. The clerks of the prison pen have the prisoners numbered and numbered in years certified down to the graveyard section, who has graves plotted corresponding with the number of each prisoner. A convict who dies in Siberia is not buried in a grave, but is buried in a coffin. The coffin is numbered and the number is put on the grave. The coffin is numbered and the number is put on the grave. The coffin is numbered and the number is put on the grave.

Eight years after this act, the same judge who had forgotten that he had passed a death decree on the man in question, being told that the criminal had been mixed up with a dynamite society, sent out an order that the man be executed and quartered.

The judge knew what he had to do and so he sent word to old ex-convict to bring the bones of the man to the execution hall. The ex-convict took his bribe and cut the weeds and finally got the bones of the man. He took them over to the prison pen where they were quartered and again returned to the grave. The clerk completed the record and made a return to the judge.

Two years afterward, the judge who had died and married a sister of the man he had sentenced to death, having forgotten the sentences and not being able to find the home records he sent word to the jailer to have the man released. The jailer "phoned" over to the ex-convict to dig up bones of No. 21,412, box them up and send them in p. d. q. as he had to make a return to the home office.

The action looked over his plan of lots, took his lantern and after blaring through seven feet of ice came up on bones of convict No. 21,412. He had a common grave digger carry them to the night clerk who in turn expressed them to the judge with the explanation of the records.

The judge saw he was in wrong and told his wife that her brother had sold his soul to America and was a great court interpreter.

The District Attorneyship; Carr For Clean Elections

Political Advertisement

Of the very gravest importance to the people of this county is the choice that will be made at the coming election of a District Attorney for the next four years. Many serious responsibilities will devolve upon this public official who in that time will represent the sovereign power of the people of the State, by whose authority and in whose name he acts. To him will be given in charge the preservation of the public peace, the public health, the public morals and the civic virtue. He will be present with the Grand Jury in all its deliberations, and upon him will depend the extent of that body's investigations, its crusades and its presentments.

He will determine to what extent the laws will be enforced; whether with impartiality or impartial justice will be meted out; whether some few by reason of their political position will be permitted to go their crooked ways, or whether all will be made impartially to suffer the penalties of their offenses; whether the law will hold its sovereign sway alike over all, crowning the good, repressing the ill. A mighty power will be his—the whole power and majesty of the State. To what manner of man should this great power be entrusted? To one owned and controlled by a political boss? To one entangled and embarrassed by political obligations and alliances? Or to one free from such restraint and influences, openly stating his cause with the people, publicly standing; pledging himself to the elimination of bribery and corruption in elections, the detection and punishment of criminals of every character and degree, the protection and promotion of everything that is good and right against everything that is bad and wrong.

Two candidates are seeking the suffrage of the people: W. Russell Carr, Democratic nominee, and S. Ray Sholby, Republican nominee, partner of W. E. Crow, boss of the Republican machine. In the announcement of his candidacy, Mr. Carr said:

"I propose to be a real District Attorney, to assume the full authority and responsibility of the office, and to enforce the laws impartially without fear and without favor. I will serve no interest and will have no boss. My ambition will be, if elected, to be the best District Attorney Fayette county ever had."

And in his address to the Democratic County Committee, Mr. Carr said: "I shall make my appeal to the honest sentiment and the intelligent understanding of the people, and them only will I serve. My election must come, if it comes at all, without the purchase of a single vote or the expenditure of a corrupt dollar. And if the people, after thoughtful consideration of my cause, entrust me with the great powers and the grave responsibilities of the District Attorneyship, I make here and now my solemn pledge that I will give Fayette county clean elections, that I will restore to the people the opportunity to select their own officials free from bribery, corruption or any species of election debauchery. I will use all the powers of the office for the protection and promotion of everything that is good and right against everything that is bad and wrong."

Which kind of a District Attorney do the people prefer? One who takes the people into his confidence and pleads his cause with them, or one who studiously keeps silent, avoiding any promises to the people. In the hope that the Republican ring can pull him through?

UNDERTAKER'S CAR FOR BRIDAL TRIP.

Scottdale Firemen's Drum Corps Played the Wedding March.

FOR MR. AND MRS. JOS. F. RYAN

Affair Followed Diggest Reception Ever Given in Temperance Hall. About Two Bushels of Rice Were Cast Over the Couple.

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, Oct. 21.—To be loaded into an undertaker's wagon which was filled with straw, and preceded by the Firemen's Drum Corps, and followed by a crowd that constantly grew larger as they went over the main streets of town, was the fate of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Ryan last evening. The bride was Miss Stella Ames and the bridegroom is one of the prominent young business men of town. The couple were married here on Tuesday and arrived home from a short trip in evening. A reception was tendered them in Temperance hall and 85 couples were present, it being the largest reception of the kind ever given there.

When the reception was over the couple were picked up and carried out of the hall and placed in a casket wagon which was waiting outside. Walter Miller was the charioteer. The horse balked somewhat at his task of drawing the wagon, but fortunately no accident occurred. After going up Market street the horse was unhitched and some of the paraders drove the wagon the rest of the way. One lucky individual rode the horse.

The parade was arranged, it is said, by John J. Menster who about a year ago, passed through the same thrilling ordeal. Mr. Ryan is a member of the Evergreen Volunteer Fire Department, and the Scottdale Firemen's Drum Corps certainly tore off the music. The young couple had said a few minutes before the trip that only a little, wee bit of rice had been thrown on them. Nearly two bushels of the stay of the Chinese Empire was cast over them before they left the hall.

Tona Vita Cures Nervous Debility

The hustle and worry and strain of modern life has produced a modern ailment. This modern ailment is nervous debility and during the past ten years it has swept over the country like wild-fire.

Today a large percentage of the population, particularly city dwellers, are afflicted with nervous debility or a "run-down condition" as it is called. The chief symptoms of this modern complaint are lack of vitality and energy, nervousness and stomach trouble, weak back, poor circulation, constipation and insomnia.

Old-fashioned remedies failing, a modern tonic was introduced in Europe to overcome this trouble. The medicine was an instantaneous success and a similar tonic is now meeting with tremendous success in this country. The tonic is called Tona Vita and it builds up run down people in a few weeks time.

Are you a victim of this miserable, run-down, half-sick, tired-all-the-time condition? Are you nervous and despondent? Do you lack energy and ambition? If so, you have nervous debility and the wisest possible thing you can do is to let Tona Vita build you up and bring back your health and strength as it has done for thousands of others. You will be astonished how quickly this great modern tonic will make you feel as though made over.

Leo's Rheubarb Laxative, the instantaneous remedy, is used in cases of chronic constipation. Rheubarb is the finest of all natural laxatives. Other drugs strain and weaken the intestines, Rheubarb strengthens them. Leo's Rheubarb Laxative is an ideal family medicine and should be given to children in preference to all others. The taste is pleasant.

A. A. Clarke has the agency for these two great medicines in Conneltsville and will refund your money if you are not completely satisfied with them.

NO CASCARET USER EVER HAS HEADACHE

A 10 Cent Box Will Keep Your Liver, Stomach and Bowels Clean, Pure and Fresh for Months.

Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath always trace them to torpid liver, delayed fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, maddening headache.

Salts, cathartic pills, oil and purgative waters force a passage way for a day or two—but they don't take the poisons out and have no effect upon the liver or stomach.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, indigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means trouble eliminated and a clear head for months. Ask any of the millions of Cascaret users if they ever have headache.

News of the Day About Scottdale

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, Oct. 22.—The great est Bible conference to be held in Scottdale among a number that have been held here during the last year will begin tomorrow evening at 7:30, when Dr. James M. Gray, dean of the D. L. Moody Bible Institute of Chicago will open a conference at the Presbyterian Church lasting until Sunday. Dr. Gray is one of the most widely known and famous teachers and writers on Biblical subjects in the country, and it is really exceptional that Scottdale, gets him as larger places have long tried without success to secure him for a conference, as Dr. Gray is a very busy and much sought man. The reputation of Scottdale as a Bible studying community has caused the securing of people that other places cannot get.

Crossed wires at the Parker building Saturday night caused a small fire that created a good deal of alarm for the time being. The blaze occurred on the second floor and was put out without a general alarm being sent in.

Mr. Piper will board in town.

Squirting Bricks.
The wet weather has let loose on the public all the loose pavements in town, and some of them have been very bad, alike ruining clothing and tempers. Last year the Borough started to make everyone fix up their sidewalks and some of the weaker brethren they succeeded in getting to do so. However the stiff necked and ungenerous regarding sidewalks were not pleased by the edicts of the council and continue to allow their loose walks to annoy the people. There are several walks that outlasted the crusade of the last year that could be profitably repaired and replaced by new walks.

GREAT GROWTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

The Manufacturers' Reports Show Marvelous Gain in Ten Years Past.

THE TOTAL IS $2,626,742,000

And This Great Sum Would Be Tremendously Added to, If the Small Industries of the Keystone State Were Included in the Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—A "marvelous growth" is told in a preliminary statement of the thirteenth United States census of the manufacturing of Pennsylvania, given out by Census Director Dillingham. During the five years ended January 1, 1910, almost three quarters of a billion dollars had been added to the annual value of the products of the State's industries.

The increase in the value of the State of Pennsylvania is more than the total output of any State west of the Allegheny mountains with the exception of Ohio and Illinois. There are no two States in the south whose combined output is equal to the increase in the value of the Keystone State. The only States in the west except Ohio and Illinois, which turned out manufactured products that even approached the value of Pennsylvania's increase are Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Indiana.

The total value of the products of the State was $2,626,742,000 in 1909, against $1,956,551,000 in 1904, an increase of $670,191,000, or 34 per cent. This exceeds the value of the products of any State so far reported by the Census Bureau, with New York to bear from. In all probability New York will exceed this amount, but the indications are that Pennsylvania will make a great gain in the race for supremacy in the industrial world.

Illinois ranks next to Pennsylvania, but the value of its manufactures has not reached the two billion mark, or was $1,841,000 less than those of Pennsylvania in the next year 1909. Massachusetts comes next with less than a billion and a half, while Ohio came very near passing Massachusetts by increasing its manufactures 50 per cent during the five years reported. Ohio's growth was due much to the overflow from Western Pennsylvania and really represents part of the increase in the value of the manufactures of the Keystone State.

The steam laundry bill, a small item in the ordinary expenses of a man, for the State of Pennsylvania amounted to the tiny sum of $3,355,000. This does not include the wages of the small laundries, nor a great many of the small laundries. For some reason the value of the output of the steam laundries have never been included in the report on manufactures. Neither has the Census Bureau collected any statistics from small factories where the value of their output was less than $500. If these were all included there is no doubt that the value of the output of Pennsylvania's industries would pass the three-billion mark.

Incidentally the report indicates that there has been an advance in the wages paid in the manufacturing of Pennsylvania during the period. There was an increase of 25 per cent in the amount of salaries and wages paid, while the average number of wage earners employed increased only 15 per cent. The salaries and wages amounted to $394,521,000 in 1909, against $112,331,000 in 1904, or an increase of $282,190,000, or 250 per cent. The value added by manufacture was $1,011,182,000 in 1909 and $512,608,000 in 1904, an increase of $498,574,000, or 97 per cent.

The value added by manufacture was $1,011,182,000 in 1909 and $512,608,000 in 1904, an increase of $498,574,000, or 97 per cent. This item formed 40 per cent of the total value of the product in 1909, and 42 per cent in 1904. The value added by manufacture represents the difference between the cost of materials used and the value of products after the manufacturing process have been expended on them.

The miscellaneous expenses amounted to $296,301,000 in 1909 and $127,267,000 in 1904, an increase of $169,034,000, or 133 per cent. Miscellaneous expenses include rent of factory work, and these items as well as such office and other expenses are no small part of the cost of turning out goods.

The primary horse power required to turn the wheels of the industries of Pennsylvania was 2,350,517 in 1909, against 2,092,338 in 1904, an increase of 257,179, or 12 per cent.

KANSAS COAL

The Output in 1910 Was Nearly 6,000,000 Tons

The total coal production of Kansas in 1910, as compiled by Edward W. Parker of the United States Geological Survey, in co-operation with the State Geological Survey, amounted to 5,921,461 short tons, valued at $7,014,709.

Kansas lost heavily in coal production in 1910 by reason of the coal strike. In 1909, when industrial peace reigned through the coal mining States, Kansas produced 6,986,178 short tons, and in the boom year 1907 the output amounted to 7,322,449 tons, the maximum for the State. In 1910, when 89 per cent of the mines were on strike and the period of the longest extended that of activity, the production decreased to 4,921,461 short tons. Compared with 1909 this shows a loss of 2,064,717 short tons, or 29.56 per cent. The decrease in Arkansas amounted to 19.3 per cent, in Oklahoma to 15.17 per cent, and in Missouri to 20.6 per cent. As in the other States Kansas prices were naturally advanced by the shortage in fuel and the decrease in value relatively less than the decrease in quantity. The value of the Kansas product decreased from $10,033,284 in 1909 to $7,014,709 in 1910, a loss of $3,018,575, or 30.08 per cent. The average price per ton advanced from $1.44 to $1.61.

The number of men employed in the coal mines of Kansas in 1910 was 12,570, of whom 10,316 were idle during the strike. The average number of days worked was 148 and the average number of days idle was 153. The total working time was 1,806,161 days and the total idleness was 1,678,027 days. The average production per man was 382 tons annually and 2.53 tons for each working day. In 1909, when 13,916 men were employed for an average of 181 days in the production of 6,245,108 tons, the average output per man was 449 tons for the year and 2.48 tons for each working day.

OFF THE TICKET.

Keystone Vote Was Not Large Enough for Candidates.

Disheartened by the small vote polled on the Keystone ticket at the primary election on September 20 last, George W. Maust, Moses H. Clark and Freeman P. Elcher, candidates who received the Keystone nomination, withdrew their names from the ticket Saturday morning.

There were just nine Keystone party votes polled at the primaries last month. Among the candidates nominated were George W. Maust for Director of the Poor and House of Employment, Moses H. Clark for County Commissioner, and Freeman P. Elcher for County Treasurer.

Maust and Elcher received the endorsement of the Keystone leaders at a meeting September 25, which was attended by more than a dozen of the politicians who last year voted for Perry for Governor. Although there were a dozen voters at the meeting endorsing the candidates, there were but nine Keystone voters polled in the county.

Freeman P. Elcher, a Republican, who received the Keystone nomination without opposition, had one vote. George W. Maust, who was defeated for the nomination of Director of the Poor on the Democratic ticket, received the entire nine votes cast in the county on the Keystone ticket.

Although Moses H. Clark, a defeated candidate on the Republican ticket for the nomination of County Commissioner, was not endorsed at the meeting of the Keystone leaders on September 25, he received eight of the nine votes cast on the Keystone ticket for his office.

Maust, Clark and Elcher are all defeated candidates of other than the Keystone party and on account of the slim vote polled at the primaries they considered it useless to put their names before the voters on another ticket.

MAY NAME MITCHELL.

Coal Miners Talk of Recalling Old Leader to Service.

According to the information given out among the coal miners of the Pittsburgh district there is a well organized movement among the leaders of the United Mine Workers for the re-nomination of John Mitchell as president of the national organization, to succeed John P. White.

White, it is understood, intends to be a candidate again, and there is some talk of also nominating John Walker of Illinois. Walker ran three years ago and was defeated by T. L. Lewis. Nominations for national and district officers are to be made during the next few weeks and are attracting much attention, except in the divided districts.

CHINESE TOWNS IN WHICH REVOLUTIONARY STRUGGLE HAS BEEN FIERCELY WAGED

REAR ADMIRAL MURDOCK

A COAL FAMINE

Is Feared in the Great Canadian Northwest.

The great Canadian northwest fears a coal famine this winter, according to information reaching Pittsburgh coal operators. Official warnings have been issued by the government to people in the northwest provinces that not only will the winter season be a severe one, but because of a threatened suspension of mining operations throughout the coal mining regions in the early spring, it was a matter of utmost importance to have a plentiful supply of fuel available during the next six months.

As a result of this significant warning, practically all the coal dealers and large consumers in the Canadian northwest have been ordering all the coal they can store and have shipped to them before the lake season closes. The Pittsburgh district coal companies are expecting to continue to a later date than for some years past. It is now believed that coal will be sent to the northwestern ports long after the ore movement has ended and the vessels will be forced to return light.

An early indication of the high pressure under which coal will be moved north from Pittsburgh, there came the information last week that freight rates for vessels have advanced slightly already. They will increase, the operators say. If the haul of coal is but a one-way freight, and the boats have to return cargoless, in the Pittsburgh district, the effect of this last hour rush will be to continue the mines under the full capacity for a later period than usual.

DIVORCE IN ANCIENT ROME.

One Woman Had Eight Husbands in Five Years.

"We are assured by Seneca," says the historian, "that there were women in ancient Rome who counted their ages not by their years, but by the husbands they had had. Juvenal tells of one woman who had married eight husbands in five years. Divorce was granted on the slightest pretext. Many separated merely from love of change, declining to give any reason, like Aemilius Papius, who told his friends that 'he knew best where his shoes pinched him.'"

"Rich wives were not much sought after by wise men. Their complete emancipation made them difficult to manage. Accordingly, since both rich and poor wives were objectionable, the large majority of men never married at all. In most cases a Roman bridegroom knew practically nothing of his wife's character until after marriage."

"Marriage for the Roman woman meant a transition from rigid seclusion to almost unbounded liberty. She appeared as a matter of course at her husband's table whether he had company or not. She could go where she liked, either to the temples of Isis and Serapis or to the circus and amphitheater. She had her own troops of slaves, over whom she ruled without interference."

It is said the Republican Progressive League of Illinois is planning to put a full-State ticket in the field for the Republican primary election next year when a Governor and other State officials will be elected.
